

Enduro Binders Inc.

COUNTY RECORD PRODUCTS

The Tradition Continues

At a leather covering station, an Enduro staff member uses her skilled hands to pleat a red leather corner of a minute book cover. This process is repeated 4 times for every book.

Enduro Binders Inc. modern production facility in Washington, MO. Completed in 2001, it is also home of Trends Presentation Products (Enduro's commercial division). Containing 80,000 square feet of floor space (10,000 office, 70,000 production), this "state of the art" facility, on its 11 acre tract, was designed to meet Enduro's growth expectations well into the future - We'll be here.

The lettering department is responsible for adding the titles and volume numbers to all Enduro binders (one line at a time). Some are applied cold, (like ink on canvas). Others use hot type and foil on materials such as leather, imitation leather, or indestructo board.

The inspection department is Enduro's final check in the quality assurance process. Here, a senior production manager discusses details of a bound book order with one of the inspectors. Some 600 binders and books pass through here each day.

INDEX

The metal forming and fabricating department sets Enduro apart from other binderies. Most of the metal mechanisms used in the production of Enduro binders are made here.

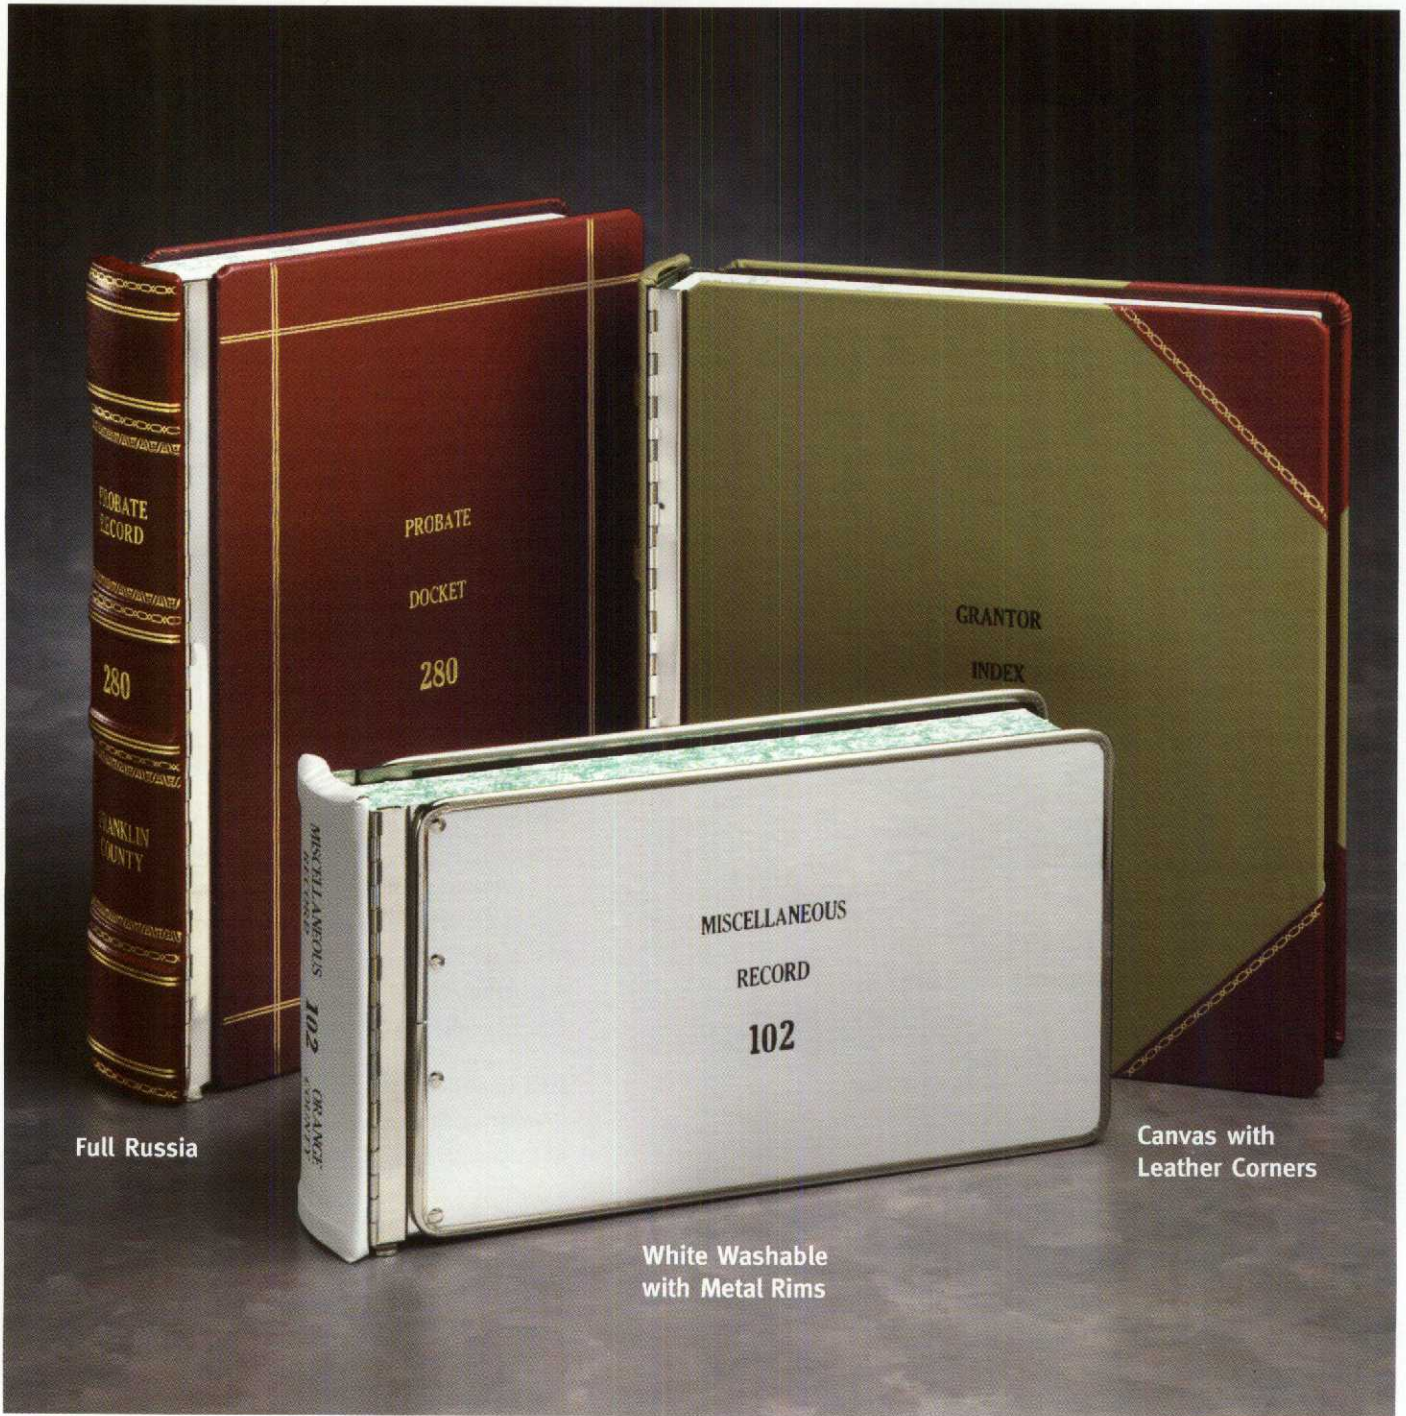

The warehouse area occupies nearly 14,000 square feet of floor space and has 25' ceilings. Tracking over 5,000 different parts and materials, the warehouse plays an integral part in the "on time" delivery of Enduro products.

Here an experienced "letterman" applies gold tooling to a curved spine of a bound book. He uses a heated, embossed wheel to apply 24 karat gold to the leather binding. A strong arm and a steady hand is also required.

PREMIER XL BINDERS

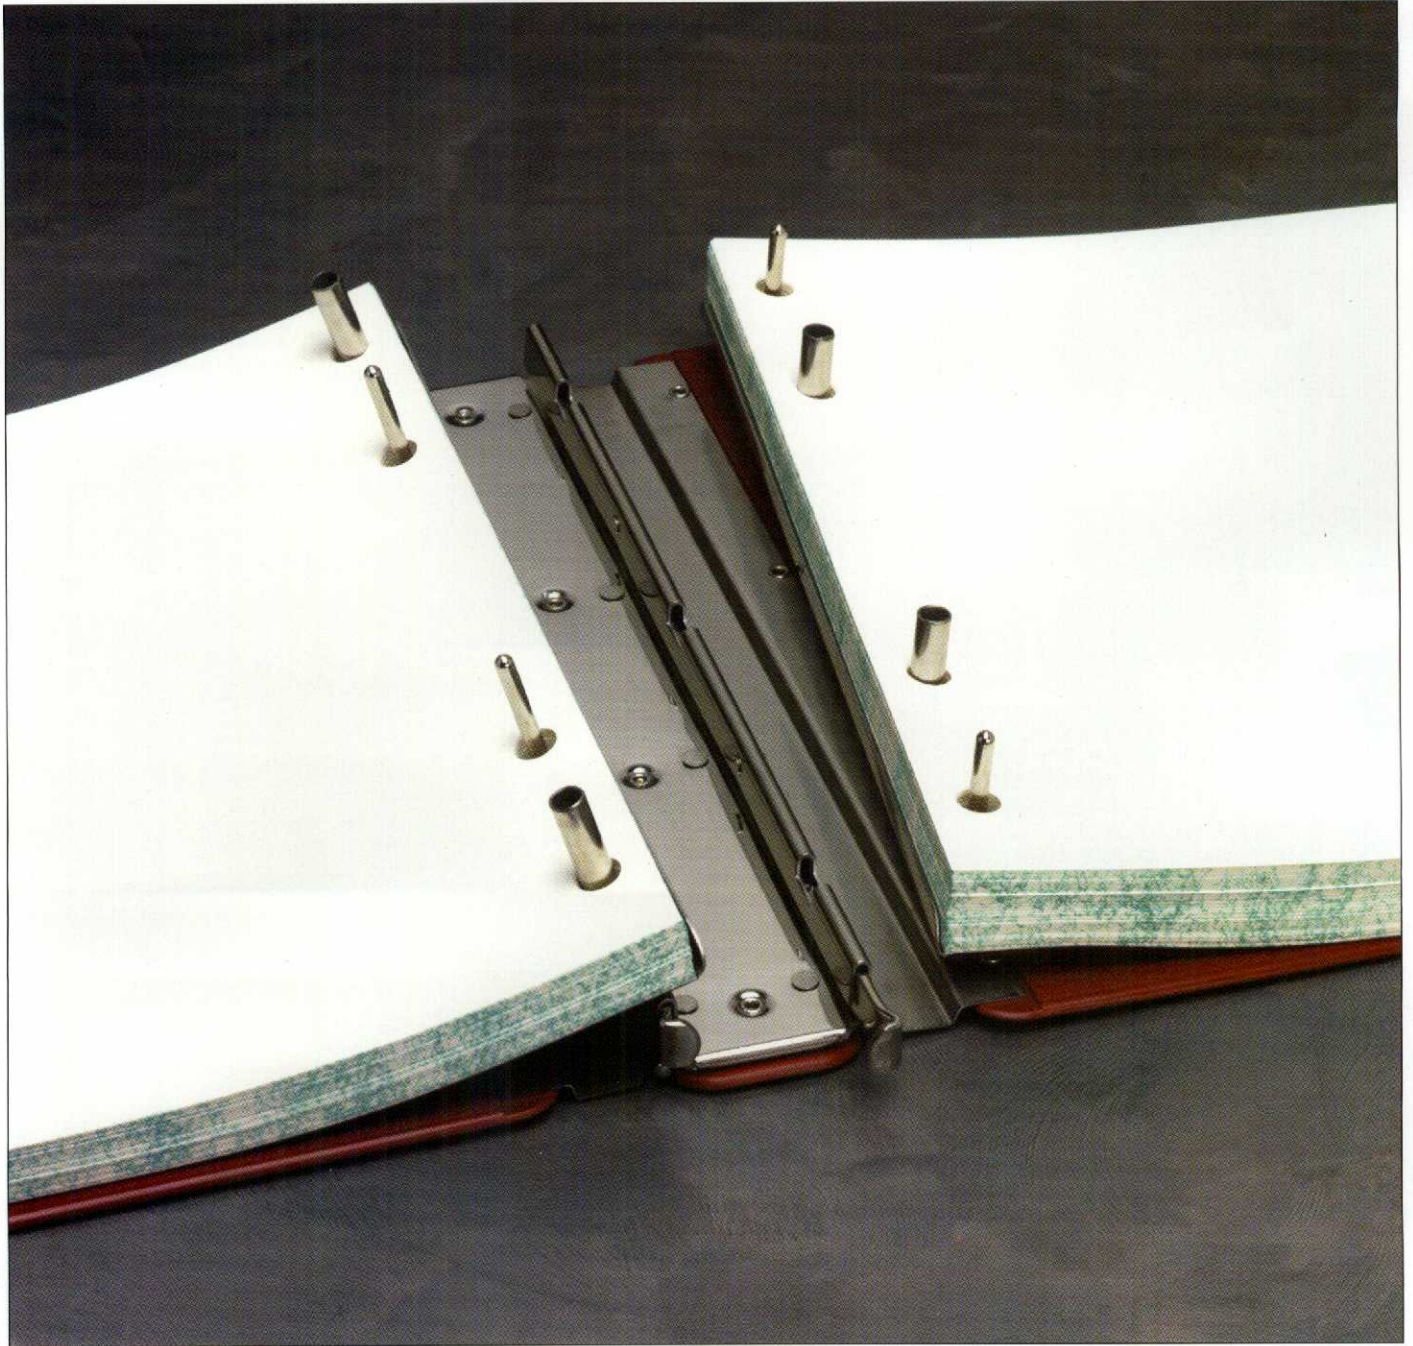

The Premier XL has already earned high praise for its strength and functional design. The covers are surrounded with nickel-plated metal rims for maximum durability. The backbone is also framed in .035 ga. nickel plated steel for strength and lasting beauty. The Premier offers your choice of imitation leather or canvas cover materials as standard. It is available in one capacity, 2 1/2" only, as well as binding sizes 8 1/2" or 9" (space-saver) and 14" (xer-cap) styles. (This binder can be shipped knocked down for in-house lettering departments.) The Premier XL is recommended for all types of records.

TIP-TOUCH BINDERS

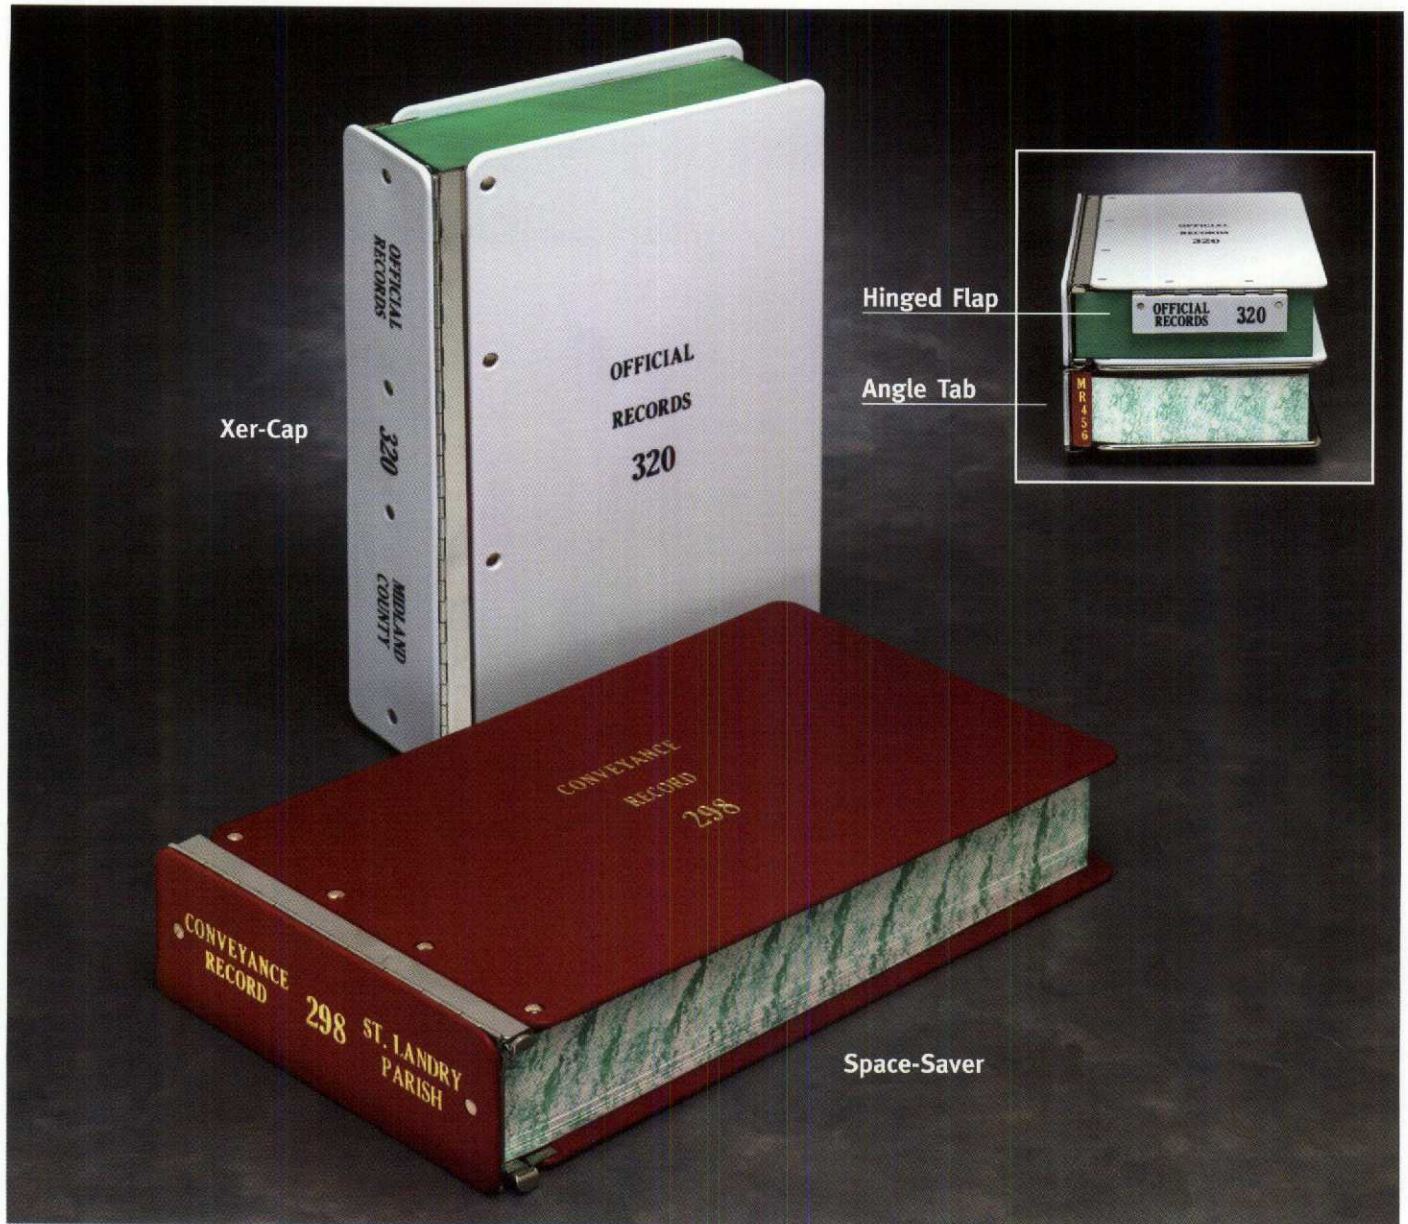

The Tip-Touch binder is a combination of our Heritage recorder and Automatic round post binders. It has the reliability of our recorder mechanism and the convenience of the Automatic. The binder's (4) 5/16" diameter posts are telescoping for easy removal and insertion of record pages. The positive slide-bar locking device prevents the binder from opening accidentally. It is available in a variety of cover materials and post spacings. (see page 10 for stock post spacings)

NOTE: Allow 1/4" capacity for thickness of transfer bar.

Pricing— Use pricing grid (page 3) and add $14.00 ea.

BOUND BOOKS

Enduro “craftsmen” produce the finest bound record books available today. Whether they are “full bound” (completely bound in leather) or “3/4 bound” (leather spine & corners, imitation leather side panels) the signatures are sewn “on guard” for a true “flat opening” book. Smyth sewn bound books are also available in two styles, “1/2 bound” (flexible spine w/o hubs) and “5/8 bound” (rigid, curved spine with or w/o hubs.) All Enduro bound books use Byron Weston 100% linen ledger paper, exclusively, and is ruled and printed (usually 3 color ruling with black text) to your customer's specifications, with a maximum sheet size of 19" x 96". One, two, and three color forms can also be printed, and crisp, colored case numbers and paging can be done “in line” for quality and accuracy. Various indexes and protective canvas jackets are also available. From the hand binding and sewing, to the hand applied gold tooling and lettering, Enduro book binders create the best Bound Book value, Period! Please call or write for price quote and lead-time. (usually 3-4 weeks)

RULED AND PRINTED SHEETS

Ruled and printed filler sheets are like those used in our Bound Books, except that these are individual sheets for use in Enduro “loose leaf” record binders. Each filler is custom ruled and printed to your customer's specifications. They typically have three colors of ruling with black text, although 1, 2, & 3 color forms can also be printed. Crisp, colored case numbers and paging can be done “in line” for quality and accuracy. We use Byron Weston 100% linen ledger paper exclusively, in either 32 or 36 sub., in sheet sizes up to 19" x 96", with your choice of punching and green edging. Please call or write for price quote and lead-time. (usually 2-3 weeks)

PLAT CABINETS & UNCABINETS

Shown in standard mist green

Plat filing and storage is a necessary part of your office organization. For the ultimate in plat storage, the ever-popular Enduro plat cabinet is the affordable answer. When security is a must, when you want the finest, the Enduro plat cabinet meets all the requirements.

This efficient, easy-to-use system eliminates bulky, difficult-to-carry books, and replaces them with a system that incorporates lightweight envelopes to hold your plats. This affords your staff the freedom and flexibility of removing one plat envelope at a time, for updating, referencing or photocopying. Smart styling, functional design and rugged durability are all features of Enduro plat cabinets, and the cost is amazingly economical. In fact, the office time you save, will pay for this system.

Consider these specific benefits of how the Enduro plat cabinet system will enhance your office efficiency.

- Easy indexing system helps you find plats quickly.
- Perma envelopes and hangers slide in and out smoothly, they never jam.
- Tracks molded of self-lubricating ABS plastic.
- Perma envelopes hold two plats back to back (making it possible to photocopy without removing plat from envelope).
- Safe, secure, dust-free storage.
- Smart office styling, functional design. It's an instant organizer!
- Special size cabinets can be ordered in either assembled or knock-down style for assembly on location.
- It's user friendly (no special training required).
- Sturdy, all welded steel construction.
- It's fully warranted (No maintenance agreements).
- Plat cabinets are fire resistant, equipped with recessed locking door handles and fit through most court house vault doors.
- Two styles available! Plat Cabinet (with single or double doors). Uncabinet (without doors, features laminate top work surface).

COMBO PRICING

(Plat Cabinet with Perma Envelopes)

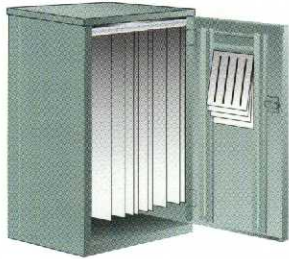

Look for "Combo Pricing" for the best, plat cabinet value! "Combo Pricing" includes the cabinet, completely filled with either Perma wishbone envelopes and hangers or regular Perma envelopes with zipper closures (one envelope per hanger). Perma, "archival" envelopes provide superior protection for your plats. These envelopes are chemically stable and are GUARANTEED safe for all types of documents. Pricing on pages 28 & 29.

PLAT CABINETS

The easy indexing system, inside the cabinet door, enables you to find plats quickly. Plat envelopes easily slide in and out, and because there is ample space between them, the hangers never jam together. The tracks for the semi-rigid envelope hangers are molded of self-lubricating ABS plastic. The envelopes hold two plats back to back, allowing them to be photocopied without being removed from the envelope.

GLOSSARY OF BINDER TERMS

Russia— 100% Real leather binding material.

3/4 Fab— A binder with imitation leather covers & leather backbone, (usually red).

Indestructo— Is a name for high impact poly styrene material used in making binders.

Fly sheets, endsheets— These protective sheets are the very first & last sheets and are standard in almost every binder.

Endtins— These are protective metal edges attached to the binding side of end sheets.

Stud Posts— These are 1/8" diameter posts attached to endsheets (usually 2 posts on front endsheet & 2 posts on the back endsheet). They are used to help guide the paper filler back onto the binding posts after having been removed from binder.

Bounce back or Rubber back— A rubber padded backbone found on some curved back binders. The idea is to absorb shock if dropped.

Post— This metal rod (either round or rectangle), is what holds the sheets into the binder.

Pulls— Are sliding bars which release & lock the post in position of a recorder binder.

Binding Side or B.S.— The side of the sheet that is punched for binding.

Covered— Wrapped with some type of binding material.

Line of Lettering— This actually refers to each impression needed for imprinting of the lettering copy. A line can be one or more words, up to 9" in length.

Finishing or Tooling— Gold or ink decorative lines added to backbone or covers.

Ruled & Printed— This refers to binder filler sheets or forms that have special colored lines & printed headings.

Sheets & Pages— A sheet is a single piece of paper. There are 2 pages to every sheet, (1 on each side of the sheet).

Spec. A Binder— Is to determine all necessary specifications needed for ordering or price quotations.
